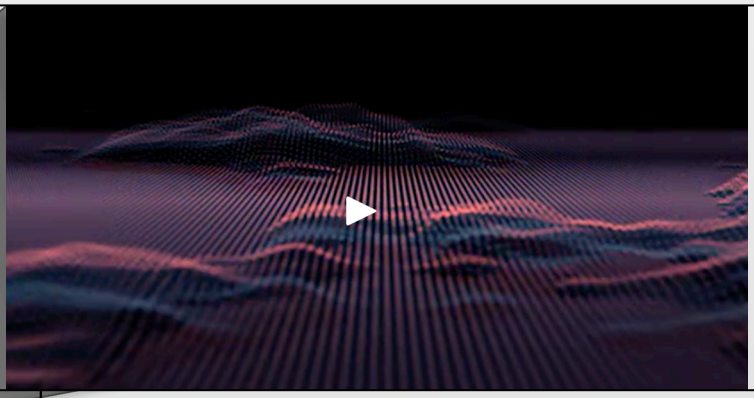
ATTENTION VIDEO ARTISTS:
CALL FOR ART

PROJECT INTENT:

The Laramie Public Art Coalition (aka LPAC) has use of a mobile projection unit, called TOPO-X, a teardrop trailer set up to house a high quality projector. LPAC recognizes there are many forms of public art projects that our community is interested in exploring. This call is for local video artists to do a temporary video projection during the darkest time of the year.

THEME: "Projecting: Place"

A sense of place can be physical or abstract, real or imagined. We are looking for broad interpretations of what "Projecting Place" means to you.



LOCATION:

210 E Custer St
Albany County Tourism Parking Lot, Clure Brothers Furniture North Wall

BUDGET:

1st Place: $250
2nd Place: $150
3rd place: $100

TIMELINE:

January 11: call open - February 11: Submission Due
February 18: Winners announced
February 28- March 2: Projection: Dusk -11pm

HOW TO APPLY:

Artists and artist teams are invited to submit existing work of moving images/videos that are: 5 minutes or less, able to be looped, minimum 720 resolution, posted to Youtube or Vimeo. Please send an email with a YouTube or Vimeo link to the video/s, a short artist statement contextualizing the work, and your contact information to: LPACsubmissions@gmail.com. Artists may submit up to 3 videos. In YouTube or Vimeo, each video must include artist's full name, year created, any necessary copyright information and attributes. If there are fast or rapid graphics that may affect viewers, please include a disclaimer informing audiences of such.
For more information contact Meg Thompson Stanton, LPAC Coordinator at publicartlaramie@gmail.com or call 307-223-5722. Visit laramiepublicart.org for more information.

Selection Criteria:

- Moving images, video, up to 5 minutes each, existing work
- Maximum of 3 submissions per artist/s
- Contributes to the cultural and visual vibrancy in Laramie and Albany County public spaces
- Technical quality of video
- Quality of creative conceptual vision
- Appropriateness of the work within the site and community contexts. Please be mindful that this will be in the public realm and should be appropriate for all audiences - nothing vulgar or intensely violent will be considered.

ELIGIBILITY: Open to all Albany County residents regardless of race, color, religion, national origin, gender, age, military status, sexual orientation, marital status, or physical or mental disability. Individual artists and artist teams are eligible to apply.